

Commerce Model Question Paper

Original practice paper - not an official previous-year paper

General Instructions

- Attempt all objective questions.
- Answer short questions in concise academic language.
- Use suitable examples and working notes where needed.
- This is original practice material and is not an official university/exam authority paper.

Section A - Objective / Very Short

- State the accounting equation.
- Define working capital.
- What is demand?
- Name the central bank of India.
- Define e-commerce.

Section B - Short Answer

- Explain any four functions of management.
- Differentiate current assets and fixed assets.
- Explain the importance of a literature review in research.
- Write a short note on digital payments.

Section C - Long / Applied

- Show the effect of five transactions on the accounting equation.
- Explain the law of demand with assumptions and exceptions.
- Discuss the role of financial management in business decisions.

Self-review checklist

- Did you define key terms before explaining?
- Did you use headings and examples?
- Did numerical answers include working?
- Did you connect theory with exam keywords?